

APPROVAL PROCESS AND CALENDAR FOR SHORT-TERM INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS RUNNING IN AY 2020-21

- Completed program proposals must be submitted to the Dean of Global Education, Harkins Hall 215. They must have the approval and signature of the department chair and the respective School Dean.
- Proposals are reviewed by the International Programs Advisory Committee (IPAC). Faculty leaders are invited to attend the Committee review of their proposed program. IPAC then votes on a recommendation to the Provost.
- The Provost reviews the Committee's recommendation and issues a final decision as to College approval of the program.
- Note: Program proposals that include a new course must first go through the new course approval process, as mandated by the Faculty Senate. Program proposals will only be considered following College approval of the new course. In lieu of a new course proposal, faculty may want to consider using a departmental Special Topics course listing to expedite the review and approval process.
